Carbajal is about 30 years younger than Huerta, but he appears to know a great deal more.

Gov. McCreary thinks he is still in the race and will make a determined fight for the Fifth district.

Two Councilmen in Georgetown who were expelled by their colleagues are suing for re-instatement.

Many of the recently enfranchised women of Kansas refused to register to vote in the statewide primary August 4.

The late Henry H. Rogers was at work on his 50th million when cut down by death. He left an estate of $49,009,999.

"Commits Suicide" is the headline of a tragedy in Breckinridge county. The man would have been just as dead if he had done it with one "T."

Two Congressmen resigned this week. McDermott, of Illinois, resigned under serious charges and Sharp, of Ohio, resigned to become ambassador to France.

Mr. Beckham is running an advertisement showing the pictures of 4 men who once voted against him. If he prints the pictures of all who vote against him August 1, there are fat times in store for the newspaper boys.

"Uncle" Jim Hall and his wife, recently deceased, broke all records of longevity of a man and wife, averaging 100 years and nine months. The husband died this week aged 102 and the wife in 1912 aged 99. They lived at Whitesburg, Ky.

Stanley will make a flying visit to Christian county, hitting in high places. It is hardly necessary for Owensley to waste time in Christian, but his friends are glad to have him show how he is doing in other counties with the smoke of battle in his nostrils.

A fight is to be made before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Washington, D. C., for lower freight rates for Henderson shippers. It is claimed that the shippers and various industries of Henderson are discriminated against in favor of Evansville and other cities.

At Owensville, Ind. Orville Sharp, the champion wheat grower of the county, raised 3,243 bushels on 135 acres and was so well satisfied that he gave a dinner to his neighbors. Christian county had several 10,000 bushel crops and many yields of 30 bushels to the acre.

President Wilson has ended the bitterest fight of his administration by withdrawing the nomination of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, to be a member of the federal reserve board. Mr. Jones had written, urging this action. His connection with the Harvester Company was the principal basis of opposition to him.

Mr. Stanley's attitude on the liquor question is that he favors the county unit law and is opposed to the statewide and nation wide propositions, holding to the same views as President Wilson. Mr. Beckham's attitude is that he favors the county unit law but absolutely refuses to tell how he stands on the other question. One tells you that he stands with the Democratic president, the other is trying to fool both sides in voting for him, when he knows one or the other is being deceived.

The Calloway Times gives 21 reasons why votes should be cast for Gov. McCreary for Senator. Reason No. 11 is "Beckham's administration caused a panic in the Democratic ranks and the state went to the bad 18,000 votes and McCreary overcame the Republican majority and beat O'Rear 31,000, making a change of 49,000 votes." This is a good reason, but there is a still better one why votes should not be cast for the Governor—Every vote for him is a vote thrown away.

END OF STRIFE
NEAR AT HAND

Despite Obstructions, Peace For Mexico Is Declared Almost In Sight.

Washington, July 24.—While many obstructions still appear to bar the way to peace in Mexico, dispatches from headquarters of both Constitutionalists and Federals express views that the end of fighting is almost in sight.

The most menacing factor in the equation it was said, was the attitude of Villa toward Carranza. Advice from Consular Agent Carothers declared, however, that there had been no fresh rupture and that the Northern leaders were working "more or less in harmony."

Carothers accompanied Villa to Western Chihuahua, where he was to attempt to impress upon the General the necessity for co-operation among the revolutionary leaders. John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson, was with Carranza performing a similar office.

STANLEY'S
HOT DOSE

Will Use Some Plain English in a Final Speech at Owensboro, July 30.

(Owensboro Inquirer.)

The final speech of his campaign will be made in Owensboro on Thursday night, July 30, when Hon. A. O. Stanley will again address the voters of this city in the interest of his candidacy for United States senator.

Mr. Stanley made a speech in this city several weeks ago, and was greeted with a large crowd. Since that time he has also spoken at Brown's Valley, West Louisville and Masonville in this county.

It was announced some time ago that Mr. Stanley would close his campaign by making another speech in Owensboro. His address will be at the court house at 7:30 o'clock p. m. It is a certainty that the courthouse will be packed, as there are a large number of people who will go to the speaking believing that the distinguished orator will give out a lot of "hot stuff," and along a different line from that of his former speech.

Mr. Stanley spoke in the western end of the state last week, and on Friday made five speeches in Henderson county.

HABEAS CORPUS

Proceedings Instituted by Prisoner in Workhouse.

Kelly Robinson has instituted habeas corpus proceedings in an effort to obtain his freedom. Robinson was recently fined on a charge of carrying a concealed deadly weapon under the new law, and is now serving time in the city workhouse. On yesterday he filed suit against Charlie Vaughn, workhouse keeper, praying that the court make an order granting him a habeas corpus, commanding the defendant to produce him before the Judge of the Circuit Court on July 27 to show cause why plaintiff is being detained and he further prays for his discharge. In his petition Robinson states that he is being detained and compelled to work without lawful authority and that he is being imprisoned when he is entitled to his freedom.

MISSSES HIGGINS AND DAVIS
TIE FOR FIRST PLACE

Several Others Very Close To The Lead--To-day Will Be One Of The Busy Days Of The Contest--18,000 Extra Vote Offer Ends To-night.

With two ladies of the city, Miss Nora Higgins and Miss Elizabeth Davis, tied for the first place and half dozen others close contenders for the place, the results of The Kentuckian's big Automobile and Trip contests, becomes a more perplexing question from day to day. The workers are so closely bunched that it is impossible for any one, even those who are in charge of the contest, to predict with any degree of certainty who can win the capital prize. The contest is now just half over. Only three weeks remain in which contestants can work for the costly prizes. Every minute between now and the close should be utilized to the best advantage. There is absolutely no time to lose, by any contestant who hopes to win. Contestants are warned not to wait till the last week to do their best work. Don't let any one lead you into the belief that a larger vote offer will be made during the last week. The offer of 18,000 extra votes with each dollar closes to-night and at no future time will a larger offer be made. Now is the time to prepare for the finish. The end will soon be here and if you would succeed prepare yourself for the result now. Take no chances, as it is better to have a million too many votes than to fall short of success by a single vote.

THIRD TIME
THE CHARM

Council To Remove A Technical Doubt Passes Franchise Three Times.

The City Council held another meeting Wednesday night and gave the second reading to the street railway franchise for Hopkinsville and passed it unanimously and ordered it to be sold to the highest bidder on August 22, at 10:30 a. m. The franchise is for twenty years, and gives the purchaser the right to use the streets for carlines and also to sell electric current for light and motive power.

The franchise ordinance was really passed for the third time, but owing to the fact that some verbal changes were made between the first and second passages, it was thought best to remove away possible doubts to pass the corrected ordinance again.

Church Society Prices.

In Arkansas they have introduced a hugging society to swell the church treasury, and the following is a scale of prices: Girls under 16, 15 cents for a short squeeze; from 16 to 20, 50 cents; another man's wife, $1; widows, according to looks, 10 cents to $8; old maids, 3 cents apiece, or two for a nickel, and not any limit of time. Preachers are not charged. Editors pay in advertising, but are not allowed to squeeze anybody but old maids.—Ex.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson Have Purchased Lot on South Main Street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Peterson have definitely decided to remain here and have purchased of Jno. B. Trice a suburban lot on South Main street, just beyond the city limits on the west side. It fronts 180 feet and runs back 700 feet. They will erect a modern dwelling house, which will set back 300 feet from the street and the lot will be greatly beautified by the services of a landscape gardener. Mrs. Peterson recently sold her home on Seventh street to Richard Leavell. Possession will be given soon and Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will occupy a cottage on West Thirteenth street until their own home is ready for occupancy.

"Quint Tyler's Boys."

There will be a reunion at Garrettsburg to-day, of pupils who attended Prof. Quint Tyler's school in 1867-69. It will be near the old school site. John T. Stuger is president of the "Boys." Dr. Will Radford the secretary and Irving Davie historian. At the first reunion last year fourteen were present. It is reported that about twenty-five will attend this year. There were 70 boys in the noted old school some of whom live in this city.

SENSATION
IS COMING

Correspondence Relating to Disclosures in Regard to L. & N. and N. & C.

Washington, July 23.—The interstate commerce commission will at an early date consider the informal application that it has received for permission to inspect its files in the matter of the free pass disclosures with reference to the Louisville & Nashville and the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railways.

Chairman Meyer said today that so many requests had been filed for permission to inspect the correspondence that he purposes to lay the matter before the commission. The correspondence relates to the thousands of free passes with which the two railroads sought to debauch the politics of Tennessee and Kentucky. It is understood that some of the letters are particularly interesting and that their publication would furnish an interesting contribution to the politics of the two states.

BLUFF TO BE CUT AWAY

Big Improvement To Be Made On Railroad's Tracks At Early Date.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 22.—According to plans of the Louisville & Nashville railroad company, the overhanging bluff by the Memphis line track between Palmyra and Corbandale is to be cut away during the months of this summer and fall.

The job will be the most extensive improvement for the Memphis line in several years and will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000. It is understood that an expenditure of $24,000 has already been authorized by the management of the road. Considerable machinery and other equipment for carrying on the work has been assembled there. A large steam boiler has been conveniently located to be used in operating the steam drills. A new side track has been constructed about midway the length of the bluff for the accommodation of a self-propelled steam derrick, to be used in removing any larger rocks which may fall on the tracks after a blast. Another side track has been run into a shady hollow near a big spring of crystal water for the accommodation of several sleeping and kitchen cars to be used by the workmen.

After leaving a 700-foot tunnel at Palmyra, most of the track from there to Corbandale, a distance of about two miles, is laid on a shelf blasted into the side of the bluff. At many points the overhanging rock was left when the road was built in 1856, and since the limestone has disintegrated by exposure, and from time to time boulders have broken loose and fallen to the track, delaying traffic, and in some instances derailed trains and throwing them down the precipice on the opposite side. The last instance of this kind occurred only a few months ago when a southbound freight train ran into one of the boulders, and the locomotive was thrown into the river fifty feet below, killing the fireman and injuring the engineer.

According to the plans, not only are the dangerous overhanging points to be removed, but the track is also to be straightened. This will be made possible by cutting back the bluff and building out the embankments where the track now swings back into the hollows from the river. It is understood the federal government has granted permission for the company to broaden its embankments twenty feet into the Cumberland river.

Mrs. C. E. Proctor, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. Green Russell.

RESIDENCE
LOTS SOLD

Two Choice Homes Bring $9,450 In The Aggregate.

The auction sale of the property of the Rev. Chas. L. Nourse, on East Seventh street, was held Thursday afternoon. This property consisted of twelve lots and five dwelling houses and was first offered in four groups and then as a whole. Group No. 1, fronting on Seventh street, brought $3,300. Lots Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5, comprising group No. 2, were bid off at $335. The third group, lots Nos. 6, 7 and 8, brought $225, and the fourth group, lots Nos. 9, 10, 11 and 12, was bid off at $480, making a total of $5,340. The property was then offered as a whole and was sold to Messrs. Chas. F. Shelton and J. E. Nunley at $5,400. The sale was made by Mr. J. F. Ellis, the well known real estate dealer.

Underwood Place Sold.

Wednesday afternoon the sale of the home of G. B. Underwood on South Campbell street took place. There was a large crowd in attendance at the sale and the many bids showed that the property was a very desirable one. It was finally sold to John Young for $4,050. The property was first offered in lots and then as a whole and Mr. Young's bid for the whole place was considered the most acceptable. The sale was conducted by Edmunds & Stites.

DOESN'T THIS FREEZE YOU?

Harry Sommers' Own County For Stanley.

That an actual close poll of fifteen precincts of Hardin county shows that in the senatorial race A. O. Stanley will carry it by 384 votes over J. C. W. Beckham, was the news brought to Louisville by Magistrate Sam L. Wagner, J. W. Cooper and Hobson James, the latter two prominent lawyers of Elizabethtown. They explained that the result of this poll, which does not include several strong Stanley precincts, will bring Stanley's plurality in Hardin county over the 500 mark. They said the remarkable gains that had been made by Stanley in Hardin and adjoining counties had overturned all previous calculations, but that Hardin county was now safely in the Stanley column and was all but conceded by many in the opposition.—Lou. Times.

Armistice Signed.

Mexico City, July 22.—That an armistice between the government and the constitutionalists was signed tonight and that hostilities will be suspended at once throughout the republic was the statement given out tonight by Gen. Eduardo Iturbide, governor of the federal district, in the name of President Carbajal. Gov. Iturbide added that the peace negotiations will be advanced upon a basis of giving full guarantees to everybody.

WILL TAKE THEIR RESTVacations In Store For The Pastors Of The Local Churches.

After a hard year's work in the pulpits of the city, the ministers are beginning to form plans for their fall vacations. Several of the pastors of the local churches will not take a rest season this fall, as they have taken vacations during other parts of the year.

Rev. C. M. Thompson is making plans to take a delightful trip through Egypt and the Holy Land and also will visit other parts of Europe. The trip is to be a gift to him from the First Baptist church,
of which he is pastor. Dr. Thompson will probably start for the Old World in October and be gone for several months.

Rev. C. H. H. Branch, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church will leave on the twenty-eighth of this month for Baltimore. While there he will visit his parents and will also occupy the pulpit of the Maryland Avenue Presbyterian church in that city. Mr. Branch expects to be gone about a month. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Branch and his two children.

Although offered a vacation by the church session, Rev. J. B. Eshman, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, will not take a vacation.
He will be absent from his pulpit,
however, during a part of August and September, at which time he will be engaged in holding meetings
in several different cities.

Rev. Elmer E. Gabbard, who is now occupying the pulpit at the First Presbyterian church, will leave during the first part of August for the mountains of Kentucky, where he will enjoy about a three weeks' rest.

Rev. J. B. Foshier, of the Universalist church, will leave next week and take an extensive trip lasting through the month of August. He will go first to Crofton for a few days, then to Owensboro and Burlington. After that he will attend the Southern Conference of the Universalist Church at Atlanta, Ga., and then probably visit in southern Illinois.

THE AUGUST

S'RAND MAGAZINE.

Some highly interesting articles appear in the August Strand.
"How They Broke Into Print" is the first of a series of articles dealing with foremost authors of the day and giving the stories of why they took up literature as a profession and the luck they had at the start. In this first paper the following authors give their experiences: Anna Katherine Green, Wallace Irwin, Reginald Wright Kauffman, Amelie Rives, Thomas Dixon, Herold Bell Wright, Alice Hegon
Rice, Jack London, and George W.
Cable. "Fights for the Davis Cap,"
by J. C. Parke, and "The Fine Art of Jockeyship," by Frank Wootton are two other articles of topical interest. "The Chain of Life" demonstrates the astounding fact that the overlapping lives of no more than forty-one individuals have been sufficient to link the time of the Pharoahs with the present day, while no more than twenty-one lives have been required to cover the whole of the Christian Era. "Queer 'First Night' Incidents" will interest all followers of the drama and "Tall Stories" contain some highly amusing "coincidences." The fiction includes stories by F. Anstey, Herman Scheffauer and other leading authors.

FOUND $1,000
IN OLD COINSWhile Bathing at Allegheny,
Pa. Some 188 Years Old.

Baltimore, July 22.—When bathing at Gwyman's Falls, Frank Martin, 32 years old, Allegheny, Penn., suddenly felt his right foot sink into a hole as he was wading across the stream.

This step resulted in Martin's finding nearly $1,000 worth of valuable English, Spanish and French coins that date back as far as 1726. The coins were in an old wooden box.

Martin lifted the box which measured about 12 by 14 inches and was bound around the edges with heavy brass bands. Coins of every description—gold, silver and copper—were revealed.

The copper coins were rusted from their contact with the water but the gold and silver coins did not seem to have suffered much from their long burial.

BECKHAM AND POWERS

Alleged Caleb Powers And Former Governor Are Picked Candidates of Anti-Saloon League.

The following political dope on the senatorial race is published in the Louisville Times:

"The Rev. Norman A. Palmer, State Superintendent of the Kentucky Anti Saloon League, in letters written on the official paper of the league, has produced evidence of what has been suspected by many Democrats in the State, but which has not been definitely proven, namely, that J. C. W. Beckham and Congressman Caleb Powers have joined forces as the picked candidates of the prohibitionists of the State and are working together to carry the prohibition banner, regardless of party affiliation.

"In letters addressed to the ministers and Sunday-school Superintendents of the State and to pastors of the Eleventh Congressional District, Mr. Palmer urges in the strongest language possible the nomination of Beckham for the Senate and the reelection of Caleb Powers to the House of Representatives.

"We have a conviction," writes Mr. Palmer, "that the temperance people of Kentucky have no truer, more constant friend than Mr. Beckham, nor one who has paid a greater price for his faithfulness to their interests. They now have an opportunity to right the wrong and at the same time send a man to the United States Senate who will be true and faithful to their interests.

"You can afford to give much time to this vital issue until August 1, that our people may know and act upon the truth at the primary election. Pardon me if I beg of you not to take a vacation or go from your field for anything that can possibly be postponed until after we have won this victory. See to it that everybody within your reach knows the truth about both these men. If there is a man to whom you think you ought not to go personally, see to it that the proper person does go to him."

"In writing to the pastors of the Eleventh District about Caleb Powers, Mr. Palmer says:

"With national prohibition the issue at Washington, we can not overestimate the importance of sending men to the United States Senate and to Congress who will aggressively support that and every other temperance measure.

"Caleb Powers, the present incumbent from the Eleventh District, has faithfully supported every effort of our leaders at Washington to secure temperance legislation. When at any time, a contest was approaching on any question, our leaders have always known that they could absolutely depend on Mr. Powers."

The spectacle of Beckham and Powers fighting side by side at Washington is one that must strike every Democrat in Kentucky with grim force. Should Beckham receive the nomination on August 1 and be elected in November he will find himself upon his arrival at Washington to join forces with Powers the only Democrat from Kentucky who will avail himself of Mr. Powers' acquaintance.

He will be the only Kentuckian on the Democratic side of either branch of Congress who will even speak to Powers, who will sit at the same table with Powers, who will not go out of his way to avoid being caught in company with Powers.

ANDERSON NEWS THROWS BOUQUET

To Stanley.—Says He is The Worthy Successor Of Goebel.

The Anderson News of July 16th, after printing two columns concerning Congressman Stanley's speech at Lawrenceburg, in behalf of his candidacy for the U. S. Senatorial nomination says:

Never, since we have been able to attend public speakings, have we heard sarcasm and vitriolic words of tongue used by any man as was done by Congressman Stanley Monday night.

His vocabulary is as full of deep cutting words as he is able to be eloquent, and no person can say he is not capable of doing either to a queen's taste. His exhortation of men and measures and being able to paint them in word pictures of the humblest understanding, is his long suit. Eloquent, forceful, adroit, courageous and resourceful at all times, and a debater, the best we believe, or the equal of the best in the country.

William Goebel, for brevity, sarcasm, vitriolic usages was the equal of any man in the country at the time of his death, and Owsley Stanley is a worthy successor in every sense of the word.

EVERYTHING INDICATES STANLEY IN A WALK.

"Carry Louisville and you will win in a walk," was a message sent to Congressman Stanley yesterday by a man who has made a careful poll of nearly every county in Kentucky.

His estimate shows that in the First and Second districts Stanley's majorities will be extremely heavy and that Stanley has made such rapid strides during the past two weeks in what were thought to be Beckham strongholds that he will carry a number of counties that have been rather generally conceded to Beckham and will run Beckham so close in other counties where Beckham is considered strong that some of the majorities Beckham has counted on in the central and eastern parts of the State will dwindle to little or nothing.

That Louisville will go for Stanley by a handsome majority seems a foregone conclusion, and if the predictions of the friend referred to above is correct Stanley is as good as nominated now.

Since the Stanley organization got into working order daily reports have been coming into the Stanley headquarters from every county in the State, and the returns are better than had been anticipated. The circulation of Stanley's Louisville speech has made thousands of votes for Stanley in all sections of the State. Demands for it continue to come in every day.

In addition to the Louisville speech, 70,000 copies of which have been distributed, the Stanley managers have issued another campaign sheet, containing Stanley's speech at Murray, his speech at Shelbyville and the complete record of the Baltimore National Convention of 1912, which shows that Beckham has been in error in the statements he has made concerning his vote against William Jennings Bryan in the convention. Several thousand copies of this sheet were sent out yesterday and more will be distributed to-day.—Louisville Times.

Resolutions of Respect.

The Death Angel has, for the fourth time this year, knocked at the door of Evergreen Lodge No. 38, Knights of Pythias, and called to the Grand Lodge on high, our beloved brother Knight, Past Chancellor Leslie W. Henderson, who departed this life, July 19, 1914, aged, twenty-five years. A useful life in our midst has closed. Though his voice, which was ever ready with words of cheer, is forever still, yet he lives in our memory, for his hands were filled with deeds of Charity until he reached the river that marks the unknown shore, and he carried with him the Golden Key which opens the Palace of Eternity. "In the midst of life we are in death." How fitting this quotation touching the life and death of our dear brother. His career on earth, buoyant, joyous and busy is ended, but his influence will still live, and ought to be an inspiration to young men especially to strive to make a mark in the world. Quiet, unostentatious, the soul of integrity, always mindful of the feelings and welfare of others, his social and business life was always up to the standard of good citizenship. Therefore be it,

Resolved: That in commemoration of the esteem in which he was held, that a copy of the resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this Lodge, a copy be sent to the family of our brother, and a copy be furnished the city papers for publication; and be it also,

Resolved: That as a token of respect, we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

After Munkacsy's "Christ Before Pilate," Ready For Exhibition.

Artist J. A. Holder who came here to paint the portraits of Dr. E. S. Stuart and Mrs. Stuart for the Stuart Memorial Hospital, has just finished the most important work of art ever attempted in Hopkinsville. It is a large painting after Munkacsy's great picture "Christ Before Pilate," on a canvass 8 by 14 feet. There are 37 people in the painting almost life size and as the work of a Hopkinsville man it ought to be a source of pride to the whole city. Mr. Holder undoubtedly possesses ability as an artist that should meet with adequate recognition.

Those who have seen the picture have advised him to exhibit it for a small fee and arrangements are being made to do so.

Mihaly Munkacsy, who painted the original, now owned by the Wamnamakers and which sold for $125,000, had a brilliant artistic career. He was born in Hungary in 1846 and died in Germany in 1900. Another of his famous paintings was "Blind Milton Dictating Paradise Lost to His Daughters."

The picture "Christ Before Pilate" shows Jesus brought in as a prisoner and arraigned before Pilate. He is surrounded by his enemies and the populace clamoring for his death. From a small copy Mr. Holder has correctly caught the expressions on the various faces and the coloring of the big picture is all that could be desired to make it lifelike and interesting to Bible students and lovers of art.

The picture is ready for exhibition and will be exhibited by E. T. Roberts, who is assisting Mr. Holder in his work, at the court house this evening for ten cents.

MUSSULMEN

Threaten to Destroy Albanian Capital Unless Prince William of Wied Retires.

Durazzo, Albania, July 24.—A note threatening to destroy the capital of Albania unless Prince William of Wied tendered his abdication of the rulership was handed by the Mussulman insurgents to the representatives of the European Powers here.

The insurgents added that if the warships fired at them they would spare neither the European nor the other inhabitants of the city. The abdication of Prince William was the only way to avert civil war, they said, as they were determined to have a different form of government.

THOUGHT SHE COULD NOT LIVE

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Unionville, Mo.—"I suffered from a female trouble and I got so weak that I could hardly walk across the floor without holding on to something. I had nervous spells and my fingers would cramp and my face would draw, and I could not speak, nor sleep to do any good, had no appetite, and everyone thought I would not live."

Some one advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I had taken so much medicine and my doctor said he could do me no good so I told my husband he might get me a bottle and I would try it. By the time I had taken it I felt better. I continued its use, and now I am well and strong.

"I have always recommended your medicine ever since I was so wonderfully benefited by it and I hope this letter will be the means of saving some other poor woman from suffering." —Mrs. MARTHA SEAVEY, Box 1144, Unionville, Missouri.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Line's Busy.

One of our grouchy exchanges tells of a telephone girl who went to church one Sunday evening after being up late the night before, and went to sleep during the service. Baptists Conduct Big Revival in Kentucky Mountains.

Lexington, Ky., July 22.—Four thousand feet belonging to 2,000 new converts of the Baptist church were bathed in Bell county, Kentucky, Sunday afternoon by ministers who conducted the recent revival at which all these people joined the church. The foot washing took place in a small creek which runs near the church, and thousands of people from all over the mountain country attended.

The converts took their places along the bank of the creek while the elders, as they passed down the line, knelt and gently dashed the water over the feet which hung over the water. Four hours were occupied in carrying out this strange rite, which for many years has been peculiar to certain sects of the Baptist church in the Kentucky mountains.

ATTORNEY'S FEES.

Lawyers Awarded $19,000 In Burley Tobacco Litigation.

Covington, Ky., July 22.—Entry in the litigation of the Burley Tobacco Company and the Burley Tobacco Society was made in the Kenton Circuit Court to-day when Judge Frank Tracy granted attorneys for Elmer Stanifer and others a fee amounting to $19,000. The attorneys sued for compensation amounting to $15,000, and testimony was heard last week. About a year ago Stanifer on behalf of himself and other members of the Burley Tobacco Society filed a suit requesting that a re-election of officers be held. After a lengthy trial the court held that the re-election be held. W. T. Loomis and F. K. Rankin were appointed by the court as election commissioners. Loomis was allowed $1,800 and Rankin $1,500 for their services. The attorneys who sued for compensation will appeal.

Moonlight School in Hardin.

Hardin county is in the midst of a great educational revival. A week's campaign, with speaking in every school house, has been waged, and Moonlight Schools are to be opened soon, fifty teachers have volunteered to teach them following an eloquent address and appeal by Mr. Harry A. Sommers. The Hardin County Board of Education has the distinction of being the first in the State to offer a prize to the teacher who teaches the largest number of illiterates. The Woman's Club of Elizabethtown offers the same amount for the same purpose, and is the first Woman's Club in the State to offer such a prize. Supt. Payne, of Hardin County, the Hardin County Board of Education, Hardin County Public School Teachers, the Woman's Club of Elizabethtown, and Col. Harry A. Sommers, and the Elizabethtown News are all banded together to wipe illiteracy out of Hardin! It has not a chance to exist in that county.

ANOTHER SMALL FIRE

Residence On East Thirteenth Street Was Damaged Yesterday Morning.

Yesterday morning at about 10:30, the house on East 13th Street owned by L. G. Yancey caught on fire and was badly damaged before the fire department had time to reach the scene of action.

The residence was occupied by G. T. Collins. The origin of the fire is not known, but the conflagration began somewhere in the back part of the house. The roof and several back rooms were burned. The loss on the building, which was three or four hundred dollars, was covered by insurance. The furnishings of the dining room and kitchen were destroyed and the loss on these articles is estimated at about a hundred dollars.

SETS ASIDE BREACH OF PROMISE VERDICT

Chicago, July 22.—Judge Lockwood Honore set aside the $20,000 verdict given to Miss Georgia Jay by a jury which heard her breach of promise suit against Homer Rodeheaver, choirmaster for Evangelistic "Billy" Sunday. In his decision the judge said the verdict was out of all proportion to the financial situation of the parties.

TWO OPTION ELECTIONS CALLED IN MONTGOMERY.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., July 21—County Judge W. O. Chenault has granted a local election to both the "wets" and the "drys." The petition asking for an election in three wards in the city, September 26, was granted to the "wets" and the one filed by the "drys," calling for an election in the county September 28, was also granted. There is considerable speculation as to the outcome of the two elections.

Kraft Starts Something.

The focus of baseball attention, of the players, the magnates, and the fans, is now turned upon the Kraft case. Clarence Kraft, the player over whom the contention has arisen, is a former K. I. T. League player, having started his career as a ball player by galloping over the hills and ditches of the outfield in Kitty ball yards and swinging his mighty warclub as clean-up batter for the McLansboro team.

Kraft was bought by Brooklyn, who used him a while and then turned him back to Nashville, in the Southern League.

Newark, in the International League, a higher organization than the Southern, wanted Kraft. The Baseball Players' Fraternity has issued a statement signed by David A. Fulz, its president, stating that if Kraft is forced to play with Nashville all the members of the fraternity will stop playing and consider their contracts null and void. Secretary Garry Hermann of the National commission claims that Kraft is the property of the Volunteers and must report there. Just what the outcome of this affair will be is very doubtful and enthusiasts of the National game all over the country are discussing the case.

The matter on Tuesday was adjusted by the purchase of Kraft from Nashville by Chas. H. Ebbets, a large stockholder of the Newark club and owner of the Brooklyn team, who says the blame for the whole trouble should be laid upon him.

THE FARM BOYS OF KENTUCKY

Distinction and a Delight to Represent County at State Fair

FUTURE "BONE AND SINEW"

Of a Great State Counting the Days
Between Now and the Encampment
To Be Held on Fair Grounds—Competitive Examinations.

The future "bone and sinew" of the state, the farm boys of Kentucky, are already counting the days between now and the encampment to be held at the Kentucky State Fair, September 14-19.

This annual encampment vies in the estimation of the youngsters with even the redletter epochs, Christmas and the Fourth of July, and all over the state there are myriads of farm boys with hearts filled with eager hope that the competitive examinations by which they are selected will win for them
the honor of being chosen as delegate to represent their particular county.

Application blanks for this competition are mailed out by and are to be returned to State Fair Secretary J. L.
Dent by or before August 1. The only stipulations made in this contest are that the boy be engaged in active farm work, between the ages of 15 and 18 years, and of good moral character.

Any boy who has been enrolled in a college of agriculture is, of course, barred. The successful applicants will be selected by an examining committee from the State Board of Agriculture and of the faculty of the agricultural college.

The boys, during their encampment
at the Fair, are regarded as guests and wards of the management and everything possible is done to make their trip a memorable one, as well as of inestimable benefit to them from an educational viewpoint. They are taken on tours through the Fair, where they enjoy lectures by authorities on various subjects of agricultural and mechanical science, are taken on excusions through the industries and show places of the city, and are furnished with every comfort and amusement possible.

It will be optional with the farm boys of this year's camp as to which class they will enter in the judging contests, and two handsome gold watches have been donated by W. A.
Burnett, of the Bourbon Stock Yards, as prizes for the winners in both the dairy cattle and beef judging contests.

RAIN OR SHINE HE DEATS THE BIRDS

Lincoln Beachey Flies Up-side-down,
Loops-the-Loop, Makes 2,000 Feet
Spirals and Races Auto Just Ten Feet Above Earth.

Rain or shine, wind or calm, Lincoln Beachey, the up-side-down bird-man or loop-the-loop wonder, who has been engaged for one day only, Saturday, September 19, to give two exhibitions at 3 and 4:30 at the twelfth annual Kentucky State Fair, will go through the entire performance which has made him an absolutely unique figure in the world of aviation.

Beachey seems to be able to successfully defy the elements and where other airmen decline to even take a chance, this intrepid aerial wonder apparently seems to revel. In fact, he claims that a calm day takes from him all joy in the loop and where his compatriots loop the loop at a distance requiring field glasses, Beachey makes his blood-curdling whirls so close to earth that his face may be plainly seen. He flies as easily upside-down as he does right side up and declares that he is taking more chances in his dare-devil race with a speeding automobile than he does high above the earth, for in this race
he flies so low that an upraised hand may almost reach him, and if anything went wrong with his machinery
it would mean a disastrous smash, whereas if at a sufficient height he hurls defiance at fate and expresses himself as well able to take care of himself.

Beachey started his flying career
as a pupil of Glenn Curtis and astonished this celebrated birdman by "taking it on himself" to fly under the suspension bridge, spanning the most dangerous rapids of Niagara Falls while under Curtis's tutelage. A few weeks later Beachey entered the great Chicago meet and won international fame by breaking the world's altitude record during a wind which frightened other competitors from the field.

Beachey will give State Fair visitors the full benefit of his repertoire during his special one-day engagement scheduled as climax to the greatest celebration in State Fair history.

RAILROAD RATES TO STATE FAIR.

Railroad rate of one fare plus 25 cents for round trip from all points in Kentucky has been secured by the Transportation Committee of the State Fair. It is estimated that a quarter of a million people will take advantage of this rate.

MUCH MIXUP IN THIS STORY

One May Believe or Disbelieve Yarn Concerning Cat and Hen of St. Louis County.

This is a stray story that comes from Luxemburg, St. Louis county, and which deals with a pussy cat
and a biddy hen, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. If you have any doubt about its truth ask Louis Wal-ther, who lives on the Lamay Ferry road, just south of the southern St.
Louis limits.

Louis declares that he has a cat
which hatched out six Plymouth Rock chicks and refused to deliver them on the mother hen after the birds were born. Jealous, Louis claims, of the cat's affections for what should have been her own brood, biddy hen kidnapped three kittens which had been neglected in the interest of the chicks.

Here is the way Louis says it happened: He had a hen hatching eggs
in a sheltered corner of the fence.
Then the hen became neglectful of her duty or the cat scared her away,
which, he will not undertake to say.
Anyhow, the cat and her kittens took possession of the hen's nest and were there when the shells were cracked.

When the chickens came the kittens were neglected to such an extent they wandered away and were finally adopted by the childless hen.

Terrible Train of Troubles.

"Lake Charles, La.,—Mrs. E. Fournier, 517 Kirby street, says: 'The month before I took Cardui I could hardly walk. I had back ache, headache, pain in my legs, chills, fainting spells, sick stomach, dragging feelings, and no patience or courage.
Since taking Cardui, I have no more pains, I can walk as far as I want to,
and feel good all the time.' Take Cardui and be benefited by the peculiar herb ingredients which have been found so efficient for womanly ills. Cardui will relieve that backache, headache, and all the misery from which you suffer, just as it has done for others. Try Cardui.

THE AUGUST WIDE WORLD MAGAZINE.

A number of interesting and well-illustrated articles appear in the August Wide World Magazine. H.
M. Rimer Batten's paper dealing with "The Wolves of the Great Northwest" will breed with breathless interest, while "The Romance of Lighthouse" will appeal to all who can realize the dangers and difficulties of erecting the many "beacon lights" along our coasts. Wilfrid Beaer continues his "Experience in Western Papua," and S. B. Belcher continues a third article on "East Africa as I Saw It." Other articles of equal interest include "After Gold in Guiana," "Last of Little Barrier," "A Picture Hunter in Hungary," and "The Voyage of the Edelweiss." As usual, the magazine is lavishly illustrated, mostly by photographs.

Bridge for New Orleans.

It seems that the project of a bridge over the Mississippi near New Orleans, first proposed in 1888, is to be put through. The original design was for a crossing about four or five miles above New Orleans, where no change of bed or banks has occurred in the recorded history of the river. The span of the cantilever bridge was to be 1-070 feet between centers of main piers, the suspended span being 440 feet long and the anchor arms each 660 feet 8 inches in length. The foundations were to extend to 170 feet below water and were to rest on a bed of firm sand. The piers were to be sunk by dredging through open wells or cylinders. The present plan calls for a double bridge, one deck for highway and electric railway travel,
and the other for railway service.—

Esperanto Congress.

Chicago, July 20.—The seventh annual congress of the Esperanto
Association of North America opened here today. An unusual feature on the program is the singing in esperanto of the opera of "Pygmalion and Galatea." Six scenes of a veteran of the opera are to be given in full costume with orchestra accompaniment.

Double Work.

"Why is it that a man won't wash
his face with a washcloth?" demanded Mrs. Wombat. "Men haven't time for all that foolishness," said Mr. Wombat. "First you have to wash your face and then you have to wash the washcloth."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

RAPID ADVANCE

In Visiting Nurse Work In Kentucky.

The Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission is greatly pleased at the rapid advance made in visiting nurse
work in this State.

Eight months ago the first visiting nurse established in the field in this State, through the efforts of the Commission, began work in Mason county. Most of the people of the county did not believe that a need for such work existed until a survey of the conditions was made by Miss Emma Hunt, one of the Commission's staff. Today Miss Annie Casey, the permanent nurse, is so overworked that her board is planning to hire
an assistant nurse.

In the spring Miss May Bygard
began a similar work in Boyd county.
Within the last two weeks three permanent nurses have begun work
as a result of the Commission's efforts; Miss Elizabeth Hunt, in Scott county, Mrs. Harriet Minnaker, in Bourbon county, and Miss Nellie Woodward, in Boyle county.

Within the coming year the Commission expects to reach at least twelve additional counties in this way.

How To Run a Newspaper.

When a man goes astray
Keep it out.
When the critic roasts a play
When two men in anger clash:
When a merchant goes to smash:
When the cashier steals the cash—
Keep it out.
When they quarrel in the church
Keep it out.
When a teacher wields the birch
Keep it out.
When nine women fair to see
Whisper something over tea—
Print it? Goodness gracious me!
"Keep it out."
When two statesmen make a deal
Keep it out.
When another tries to steal
Keep it out.
Stories this and stories tell;
Good and bad and big and small—
Anything that's new at all—
Hear 'em shout;
"Keep it out!"

When some merchant's have a scheme
Keep it out.
Though all know it's not a dream
Keep it out.
Women, men and boys may talk,
Shout the details as they walk;
But the paper mustn't squaw,
Keep it out.

When a rogue for office runs
Keep it out.
Dirty tool of some "big guns."
Keep it out.
"Any man may run," you see,
And if you talk and I
You lose the announcement fee;
Keep it out.

for the silly questions asked him by customs officials. It was on the pier at New York that his woes came to a climax. The officer looked up in amazement. "Open your trunk, please," commanded the custom-house officer. "Have you anything in there but personal property?" he continued.
"What do you mean by personal property?" countered the lawyer. "For heaven's sake, don't you know what personal property is?" "I thought I did," answered the attorney. "And I can assure you that there is no real estate in my trunk."—Cleveland Plain

Popularity of Moving Pictures.

Chicago furnishes a striking example of the rapid growth of the moving picture industry. Half of the 750 amusement houses are used exclusively for moving pictures, and 76 new theaters are going up chiefly to accommodate the movies, almost doubling the present seating capacity of all the city's theaters. The daily attendance now, the great bulk of which is estimated, is 900,000, or most one-half the total population.
The cheap form of amusement has overshadowed the drama in the popular esteem to an extent which cannot fail to be alarming to the theatrical managers. Just when prices were being shoved up to two and three dollars for traveling shows, the moving pictures came along and captured the crowds at five and ten cents. The discomfiture of the theatrical syndicate is one among the gratifying features of the situation.
If other trusts could be so effectively checkmated life would be more easy of preservation.

MEN IN MIND IN HOPKINSVILLE

People of Prominence In The Pearl City of The Penny-royal.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 39.

Veteran Merchant Who Came To Hopkinsville as Soon as He Could Ride a Stick Horse.

Bailey Waller was born at Trenton, Todd county, Ky., Mar. 2, 1855, but he will not admit that he was not born in Hopkinsville unless you pin him down to brass tacks. He worried about being in the wrong county until he was nearly 5 years old and then gathered up his doll rags and rode his stick horse into Hopkinsville. His father was L. A. Waller and when Bailey came he brought both of his parents with him. He has been here ever since and has no idea of ever leaving. They put him in Bethel Female College when a cute little boy and he first learned to tread the flowery pathway of knowledge in a girls' school. It was rather hard on him to be the only boy in school and have all the big girls take him up in their laps and kiss him and pinch his cheeks, but Bailey was gritty and stood it without complaining. After awhile he got too big to go to a quiet girls' school and landed in the celebrated old field school of Henry Durrett and Enos Campbell, where there was something doing every minute. This private school for boys was the greatest school of its day. These veteran teachers, unequaled to this day, not only enlightened the minds, but energized the bodies, rectified the habits and purified the morals of bad boys all over this part of Kentucky. Their discipline was rigid in the extreme, but in the end there was not a boy who went through their mill who did not come out ready to fight for them at the drop of a hat. The dunce stool was a mild form of punishment. Boys were sometimes required to ride on top of an open door, to stand on a table on one foot and do other deeds of physical prowess that made them acrobats as well as students. If whipping became necessary, the boy's head went between a pair of knees and what happened made a lasting impression on the whole school and the one boy in particular. After it was all over, the teachers went into the play yard and took part in the roughest of games with the biggest boys. If the boys got the better of it, the teachers took their punishment as part of the play.

BAILEY WALLER.

Bailey was a good little boy when he went in and he saw enough the first day to make him stay good all the years he was there. The future merchant grew to manhood well equipped for the duties of life. With a well-trained mind, exemplary habits and influential connections, he at once entered upon a career of usefulness in various directions. He became active in church work, was a leader in music circles and became a valued employee of the leading dry goods merchants of that day, Moore Brothers. Later he was employed in the office of the St. Louis & South-eastern Railroad Co., now the L. & N., but soon returned to dry goods and went with Waller, Bumpus & Garrett, his brother being a member of the new firm. Then he tried farming for a year, but once more returned to his first love and sold dry goods for Roach & Latham, afterwards C. M. Latham. He remained with this house 14 years and saved up money enough to establish his present business. He resigned in 1885 and bought the furniture stock of the late Geo. O. Thompson. During the last 29 years he has built up the business to the present mammoth proportions, but not without many ups and downs. In 1900 he bought the stock of his business rival, A. W. Pyle, and five days later the great flood of that year caused his store to collapse and entail upon him a loss of $3,000. The remnants of his two stocks of goods, which were combined, were dug out of the debris and he started over again in a small store on Ninth street. In time he moved to a better stand on Main street and took in as a partner Frank D. Trice. Business prospered as the town boomed and last year the firm was incorporated as the Waller & Trice Furniture Co., and moved into the splendid storeroom at Eighth and Main, constructed especially for them. They handle everything in the furniture line and undertaking is an important branch of their big business. Mr. Waller built the first house on Water street which ought to have been named Waller, as it is not on the river bank. This street is now a handsome residence street, with the credit due largely to his foresight. Mr. Waller was the first secretary of the original Y. M. C. A., organized nearly 40 years ago. He was one of the organizers of the first public library ever in Hopkinsville, started with the proceeds of Miss Emily B. Perry's Glee Club entertainments in the seventies. In 1880 he was a supporter of the present public school system. He is one of the earliest members of the local Knights of Pythias, Masonic and Royal Arcanum Lodges. He is a deacon in the First Baptist church, of which he has been a member 47 years.

Mr. Waller was married in 1886 to Miss Susie Herndon and they have one stalwart son, Herndon Waller, a student in the State University.

The picture here given is the only one Mr. Waller has had taken in thirty years. The Kentuckian had a hard time getting it, but it is a good one.
